Giselle C. Alexander

galexander@frgalaw.com

Giselle Alexander is an associate attorney in the tax planning and tax controversy practice areas. Giselle is also a Certified Public Accountant and a gubernatorial appointee to the Arizona State Board of Accountancy. Prior to joining Frazer Ryan, she worked in the Business Tax Services group of a Big Four accounting firm, where she focused on tax planning.

A Super Lawyers Rising Stars honoree, Giselle serves on the Executive Council of the State Bar of Arizona's Tax Law Section and is the Section's Budget Officer.

Giselle's community leadership includes serving as a volunteer attorney for Wills for Heroes. In addition, she is a member of Ballet Barre, Ballet Arizona's young professionals group. While earning her LL.M. degree at Northwestern University Law School, she earned a Public Service Star Award for her volunteer work with the Joffrey Ballet in Chicago. Giselle also serves as treasurer of the Paradise Valley Chapter of the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution.
