Lisa M. Reilly

lreilly@frgalaw.com

Lisa Reilly, who was elected as a partner in the firm in 2016, focuses her law practice on tax controversy and tax, estate and business planning.

In her tax controversy practice, Lisa represents individuals before the IRS and Arizona Department of Revenue in income tax collection issues involving unfiled tax returns, penalty assessments and past-due taxes. She also assists businesses with employment tax and income tax matters before the IRS and with sales tax and withholding tax issues before the Arizona Department of Revenue.

Lisa's estate planning experience includes assisting individuals, couples, families and business owners in preparing and executing estate planning documents, including wills, trusts, financial powers of attorney, health care powers of attorney and living wills.

She also assists business owners in business formation, succession planning and tax planning.
